Facility Bio: For over two decades, Don Antonio Lugo High School has produced graduates who exemplify the qualities sought after by employers and universities. Don Lugo graduates have attended such notable places of higher learning as Stanford, U.C. Berkeley, Davis, Riverside, and Irvine, Georgetown University, and Yale.

Graduates have gone on to be employed in many sectors including the tech-industry, the medical field, and places of higher education.

Don Antonio Lugo High School's Associated Student Body (ASB), clubs, arts organizations, and athletic teams embody whole of the activities program at our campus. These clubs, teams, and organizations exist such that students may challenge themselves, reach toward their own strengths, promote community involvement on and off campus, and be part of a diverse community of students.
